MAKING DECISIONS AT THE TIME OF NEED

- Unprepared, Stressful, Alone, Uncertain
- House in Disarray, Guilt, Traumatic
- Hurt, Confused, Uneasy
- Regrets, Family Conflicts
- Wishes are not Known
- Burden, Shock, Disorganized
- Decisions are Dictated by Emotions

PREPARATION INVOLVES EVERYONE

The best decisions are made in a calm deliberate manner far in advance of need. It should include those who are important to you and together share in the decisions and planning. This assures that your wishes will be followed and because everyone knows the plan, it is executed smoothly. Sharing together will calm and strengthen the family at the time of loss.

Focus on the Family and care for the Emotions of Loss is the Priority. Paperwork, Planning and caring for the needs are left to the professionals that help you with Pre-Planning!
